Welcome to UCR!

Here are important information to help you prepare for your first quarter as a Highlander!

1. Before Arrival to the U.S.

- Pay the SEVIS Fee
  The SEVIS fee payment validates your SEVIS record and I-20 Form. You will need UCR’s school code (LOS24A00177000) and your SEVIS number, located on the top of your I-20. Bring the printed payment confirmation to the visa interview. More info at https://www.fmjfee.com/jfefee/index.htm

- Submit the Statement of Legal Residence (SLR) to the Registrar’s Office
  The SLR will determine your tuition residency status. More info https://registrar.ucr.edu/tuition-fees/residency-for-tuition

- Research Housing Options
  Campus housing is limited and is first-come, first-serve. More information at https://housing.ucr.edu/housing-options

- Schedule Your Visa Interview
  Schedule your Visa appointment with your local consulate or embassy. All locations have individual reopening plans and different appointment availability. Student visas can be issued 120 days before your program start date.

- Check Your Program Start Date & Plan for Travel
  Arrive no more than 30 days prior to the program start date. The earliest arrival date is on your I-20 (if applicable to you).

- Complete Health Screenings and Immunizations
  Obtain required screenings and immunizations. Submit proof to Student Health Services. More info at https://studenthealth.ucr.edu/immunization-requirements

- Register for the Mandatory International Student Orientation

- Print Your I-94 Travel Record
  Verify your personal information and visa type and print a copy for your records. More info at https://international.ucr.edu/students/get-prepared-ucr#print

2. Getting to UCR

- Keep Your Documents with You
  Store immigration documents in your carry-on luggage to present at the U.S. Port of Entry.

- Arrange for Transportation
  Reserve train, bus, or car services from nearby airports to UCR. More info at https://international.ucr.edu/students/get-prepared-ucr#transportation

3. After Arriving at UCR

- Attend Winter 2024 International Student Orientation (January 4, 2024)
  Make new friends, tour the campus, and meet helpful staff. More info at https://international.ucr.edu/students/orientation

- Complete Your SEVIS Check-In
  All F-1 students must provide their U.S. contact information to the International Students and Scholars (ISS) office after arrival to be registered as an active student. More info at https://international.ucr.edu/students/get-prepared-ucr#checkin

- Print Your I-94 Travel Record
  Verify your personal information and visa type and print a copy for your records. More info at https://international.ucr.edu/students/get-prepared-ucr#print

- Connect with ISS & embrace the UCR Experience
  Get involved with ISS events to meet other UCR students! More info at https://international.ucr.edu/students/programs-and-activities
